	Notification: Windows XP Operating System – NO LONGER SUPPORTED Microsoft will no longer support Windows XP Operating System. This means Windows XP users will not receive Microsoft software updates, including security updates that help protect your POS system from viruses, spyware and other malicious software. If you are currently operating Windows XP Operating System, we recommend you move to a supported operating system so you can continue operating in a secure environment. In moving to a new operating system, if your POS system also runs in Windows XP, we suggest you contact your primary support provider to discuss compatibility of your POS system with the new operating system.
